MELISCOUT
vision engineering

Working student (m/f/d)

Meliscout GmbH – Zwingenberg

Tasks:

- Supporting the development of image processing algorithms and applications for industrial use in the field of pharmaceutical quality control with .NET and MVTec Halcon
- Conceptual design of image processing solutions in cooperation with internal mentor
- Integration of external I/O and PLC interfaces
- Visualization of processes on HMI user interfaces
- Collaboration in image processing projects from project planning to commissioning
- Support and execution of software test planning

What do we offer?

- Exciting and varied tasks
- The opportunity to contribute your ideas and implement them on your own responsibility
- A friendly, colorful team in a familiar environment

Your profile:

- Technical studies preferably in the field of optotechnology and image processing or comparable course of studies with technical orientation
- Knowledge in vision libraries like MVTec Halcon
- Advanced programming skills in .NET using Visual Studio
- High motivation to learn new things and push boundaries
- Interest in solving complex image processing tasks

Desirable:

- Good mathematical understanding
- Very good knowledge of German and English, both written and spoken

Are you interested? Then apply today...

.... Please apply with cover letter, curriculum vitae, the certificate of higher education entrance qualification.
 We look forward to receiving your application and will respond promptly.

Application for the attention of our personnel department in digital form: personal@meliscout.com